

SUBSTANTIVAL

Meaning: Substantival refers to a grammatical element, such as a phrase or clause, that functions as a noun or noun equivalent within a sentence.

1. Substantival phrases often function as the subject of a sentence.
2. In linguistic theory, a substantival clause can replace a noun in complex structures.
3. The teacher emphasized the importance of understanding substantival forms in grammar.
4. In many languages, substantival expressions are crucial for conveying specific meanings.
5. The student's essay successfully identified various uses of substantival constructions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/substantival>