

SUBSTANTIVE

Meaning: Substantive: having a firm basis in reality and therefore important or meaningful; significant.

1. The committee reached a substantive agreement that would benefit both parties involved.
2. Her research provided substantive evidence to support the theory she was proposing.
3. In discussions about policy changes, it is essential to focus on substantive issues rather than superficial details.
4. The lawyer argued that there was no substantive basis for the charges against her client.
5. Substantive education reform is crucial for improving the quality of schools across the nation.
6. The committee made substantive changes to the proposed legislation after extensive discussions.
7. Her argument was not only persuasive but also backed by substantive evidence from reputable sources.
8. The research findings provided substantive insights into the effects of climate change on biodiversity.
9. In order to make a substantive impact, the organization needs to implement sustainable practices.
10. The judge ruled that the evidence presented was not substantive enough to warrant a retrial.
11. The lawyer presented substantive evidence that could sway the jury's decision.
12. Her research provided substantive insights into the effects of climate change on local ecosystems.
13. They engaged in a substantive discussion about the implications of the new policy.
14. The committee's report was filled with substantive recommendations for improving public health.
15. In order to make a persuasive argument, he needed more than just substantive claims; he required solid data.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/substantive>