

SUBSTANTIVENESS

Meaning: Substantiveness refers to the quality of being substantial, significant, or meaningful, particularly in the context of arguments or evidence.

1. The substantiveness of her arguments made a compelling case for change.
2. In academic discussions, the substantiveness of evidence is crucial for validating theories.
3. Critics often question the substantiveness of claims made without substantial proof.
4. The report lacked substantiveness, leaving stakeholders uncertain about its conclusions.
5. His speech was appreciated for its depth and substantiveness, addressing vital issues directly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/substantiveness>