

SUBSTRUCT

Meaning: To substruct means to remove or alter the underlying support or foundation of a structure in order to improve or modify its stability or design.

1. The engineers decided to substruct the existing design to enhance its stability.
2. Before proceeding with the new construction, they had to substruct the old foundation.
3. To create a more efficient layout, they will substruct several of the planned features.
4. The architect's innovative approach allowed her to substruct unnecessary elements from the blueprint.
5. In order to optimize the project's budget, the team chose to substruct non-essential components.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/substruct>