

SUBSTRUCTION

Meaning: Substruction refers to the underlying structure or foundation that supports a building, ensuring its stability and integrity.

1. The architect explained that substruction is crucial for ensuring the stability of the building.
2. During the renovation, the team discovered that the original substruction was not up to code.
3. Proper substruction can prevent water damage and structural failures in the long run.
4. As part of the construction process, the substruction was carefully inspected for any weaknesses.
5. Ignoring the importance of substruction can lead to costly repairs and safety hazards in the future.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/substruction>