

SUBTEPID

Meaning: Subtepid: slightly warmer than cold but not warm enough to be considered hot or adequately heated.

1. The soup was subtepid, leaving everyone feeling unsatisfied.
2. After the long wait, the tea was served at a subtepid temperature that was far from ideal.
3. She preferred her coffee piping hot, not at a subtepid state that lacked flavor.
4. Despite being labeled as freshly brewed, the coffee was disappointingly subtepid.
5. His enthusiasm waned as he realized the presentation was only subtepid at best.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subtepid>