

SUBTLY

Meaning: In a manner that is not immediately obvious or noticeable, often implying a delicate or understated quality.

1. She smiled subtly, her eyes reflecting a deeper understanding.
2. The artist used colors subtly to evoke the mood of the scene.
3. He subtly hinted at his true feelings during their conversation.
4. The changes in her demeanor were subtly noticeable over time.
5. The perfume was applied subtly, leaving just a trace of fragrance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subtly>