

SUBTREASURER

Meaning: A subtreasurer is an official or officer responsible for managing and overseeing financial transactions and reports within an organization or government entity, often acting under the authority of a treasurer.

1. The subtreasurer presented the financial report at the annual meeting.
2. After much deliberation, the board appointed her as the new subtreasurer.
3. As subtreasurer, he was responsible for managing the organization's funds efficiently.
4. The subtreasurer's role includes overseeing all transactions and maintaining accurate records.
5. During the audit, the subtreasurer ensured that all financial practices were in compliance with regulations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subtreasurer>