

SUBURBED

Meaning: SUBURBED: Adjective describing an area or community situated on the outskirts of a city, typically characterized by residential neighborhoods and a quieter lifestyle.

1. The quaint coffee shop in the heart of the suburb served as a gathering place for locals.
2. After moving to a quieter suburb, she found herself enjoying the slower pace of life.
3. He often reminisced about his childhood spent playing in the grassy fields of the suburb.
4. Many families are drawn to the suburb for its excellent schools and community parks.
5. The suburb was known for its tree-lined streets and friendly neighbors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suburbed>