

SUBVENTION

Meaning: Subvention is a financial assistance or subsidy provided by a government or organization to support a specific sector or project.

1. The government announced a new subvention aimed at supporting local farmers during the drought.
2. Many non-profit organizations rely on subvention from various foundations to fund their community programs.
3. The university received a significant subvention, allowing it to expand its research facilities.
4. Without the subvention provided by the state, the arts program would have faced severe budget cuts.
5. The charity's efforts were bolstered by a generous subvention that helped them reach more families in need.
6. The government decided to increase the subvention for local arts programs to support cultural development.
7. Many farmers rely on subvention from the state to sustain their agricultural practices during tough economic times.
8. The university received a generous subvention that allowed it to expand its research facilities and hire more faculty.
9. In response to the rising costs of housing, the city implemented a subvention plan to assist low-income families.
10. Nonprofit organizations often seek subvention to fund their initiatives aimed at community improvement and social welfare.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subvention>