

SUBWORKER

Meaning: A subworker is an individual hired to perform specific tasks or assist with a project under the direction of a team leader or manager.

1. The project manager decided to hire a subworker to assist with the increased workload.
2. As a subworker, she was responsible for completing specific tasks assigned by the team lead.
3. The subworker quickly adapted to the fast-paced environment and delivered quality results.
4. In many industries, subworkers play a crucial role in supporting the primary workforce.
5. Although he was a subworker, his contributions were vital to the success of the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/subworker>