

SUCCENTOR

Meaning: Succentor: a person, typically in a church setting, who assists in leading a choir or chanting during religious services.

1. The succentor led the choir with a powerful voice that resonated through the cathedral.
2. During the ceremony, the succentor took on the responsibility of chanting the ancient hymns.
3. As the succentor, she played a crucial role in the church's liturgical music program.
4. The congregation was moved by the succentor's passionate interpretation of the sacred texts.
5. His role as succentor required both musical skill and a deep understanding of the rituals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/succentor>