

SUCCORABLE

Meaning: Succorable: capable of being helped or relieved from difficulty or suffering.

1. The doctor assured the family that their child's condition was succorable with the right treatment.
2. Despite the challenges she faced, her optimistic outlook suggested that her situation was succorable.
3. The therapist believed that many psychological issues were succorable with the appropriate interventions.
4. In the hands of skilled professionals, even the most troubled cases can be deemed succorable.
5. His unwavering faith in the power of love made him certain that their relationship was succorable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/succorable>