

SUGAR-HOUSE

Meaning: A sugar-house is a facility where sap is collected from sugar maple trees and processed into maple syrup.

1. The sugar-house in the village produced the finest maple syrup every spring.
2. Walking past the old sugar-house, I could smell the sweet aroma of boiling sap.
3. During the festival, visitors flocked to the sugar-house to sample fresh syrup and pancakes.
4. The historic sugar-house was a key part of the local heritage, showcasing traditional methods of production.
5. In winter, the sugar-house became a cozy gathering place for the community to celebrate the seasonal harvest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sugar-house>