

SUITOR

Meaning: A suitor is a person who seeks to win the affection or love of another, often with the intention of marriage.

1. The young woman was thrilled when her childhood suitor finally professed his love.
2. Despite his wealth and charm, many viewed him as an unworthy suitor for her hand.
3. In the romantic comedy, the main character juggles multiple suitors, each vying for her affection.
4. Her father was skeptical of any suitor who couldn't hold a decent conversation over dinner.
5. The suitor arrived with a bouquet of flowers, hoping to win the approval of her family.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suitor>