

SULK

Meaning: Sulk: to remain silent and withdrawn in a mood of resentment or disappointment.

1. After losing the game, he decided to sulk in his room instead of joining the celebration.
2. She couldn't understand why her friend would sulk for days over a small disagreement.
3. Instead of discussing the problem, he chose to sulk silently at the dinner table.
4. The child began to sulk when he realized he wasn't allowed to stay up late.
5. Rather than face the issue, she preferred to sulk and hope it would resolve itself.
6. After losing the game, he chose to sulk in his room instead of joining the celebration.
7. She could tell he was starting to sulk when he crossed his arms and refused to speak.
8. It's not healthy to sulk for too long; sometimes you just have to face the situation and move on.
9. Whenever she didn't get her way, she would sulk quietly, hoping someone would notice.
10. Instead of sulking about the missed opportunity, he decided to focus on his next project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sulk>