

SULPHURING

Meaning: Sulphuring is the process of treating fruits or other products with sulfur dioxide to preserve their color, flavor, and prevent microbial growth.

1. The process of sulphuring fruits helps to preserve their color and flavor for a longer period.
2. In winemaking, sulphuring can prevent unwanted microbial growth during fermentation.
3. Farmers often use sulphuring to control pests and diseases in their crops effectively.
4. The reduction of sulphuring practices in food processing has raised concerns about shelf life.
5. Scientists are investigating the environmental impacts of sulphuring on local ecosystems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sulphuring>