

SUMMARY

Meaning: A summary is a brief statement or account that presents the main points or key findings of a longer text or document.

1. The summary of the report highlighted the key findings and recommendations.
2. After reading the lengthy article, I appreciated the concise summary at the end.
3. In her presentation, she provided a detailed summary of the main concepts discussed in class.
4. The summary of the novel captured the essence of the plot without revealing too much.
5. For a quick overview, the summary is often more useful than the full document itself.
6. The report concluded with a brief summary of the key findings.
7. She asked for a summary of the meeting to ensure she understood all the important points.
8. In the summary, the author highlighted the main arguments and provided recommendations for future research.
9. After reading the lengthy article, I appreciated the concise summary that captured the essential ideas.
10. The teacher requested a summary of the book to assess the students' comprehension of the material.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/summary>