

SUNBEAM

Meaning: A sunbeam is a ray of sunlight that penetrates through the atmosphere or an object, often creating a warm and illuminating effect.

1. The sunbeam filtered through the leaves, casting a warm glow on the forest floor.
2. As she stepped onto the balcony, a gentle sunbeam kissed her face, bringing a smile to her lips.
3. He captured the fleeting moment of a sunbeam dancing on the surface of the water with his camera.
4. The artist used the sunbeam as inspiration for her latest painting, depicting light and warmth.
5. Children laughed and played in the park, their joy illuminated by the golden sunbeam overhead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sunbeam>