

SUNBLINK

Meaning: Sunblink: a fleeting effect of sunlight filtering through foliage or reflecting off surfaces, creating shimmering patterns or highlights.

1. The sunblink through the leaves created a mesmerizing pattern on the forest floor.
2. As she gazed at the horizon, the sunblink made the ocean shimmer like a thousand diamonds.
3. He felt a rush of warmth when the sunblink broke through the clouds and illuminated the park.
4. The artist captured the fleeting sunblink on canvas, highlighting the beauty of nature's light.
5. Every morning, the sunblink would fill her room with a golden glow, lifting her spirits for the day ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sunblink>