

SUNBURST

Meaning: Sunburst: a radiant or vivid display of light, often resembling the shape of a sun's rays, typically used in artistic or descriptive contexts to convey brightness and warmth.

1. The artist used a vibrant palette to create a stunning sunburst effect in her painting.
2. As the clouds parted, a brilliant sunburst illuminated the landscape, casting a warm glow over the field.
3. The children squealed with delight as they spotted the sunburst of colors in the sky during the sunset.
4. The designer incorporated a sunburst motif into the fabric, adding a unique touch to the collection.
5. During the summer festival, the fireworks exploded in a dazzling sunburst, captivating the audience beneath the night sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sunburst>