

SUNDOWN

Meaning: Sundown refers to the time in the evening when the sun sets below the horizon.

1. The sky was painted in vibrant hues as we gathered on the beach to watch the sundown.
2. Sundown marked the end of our long hike, rewarding us with a breathtaking view of the valley below.
3. As the sun dipped below the horizon, the peaceful atmosphere of the sundown filled the air with tranquility.
4. She felt a sense of nostalgia every time she watched the sundown, recalling memories of her childhood.
5. The festival began at sundown, transforming the village square into a lively celebration of music and light.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sundown>