

SUNDROPS

Meaning: Sundrops are bright, yellow flowers belonging to the genus Oenothera, often found in gardens and known for their vibrant appearance.

1. The garden was filled with vibrant sundrops that glistened in the morning sun.
2. She collected sundrops in a small jar, hoping to use them for her art project.
3. As the sun set, the sundrops seemed to glow even brighter against the darkening sky.
4. The children laughed as they chased each other through the field of sundrops.
5. Sundrops are known for their cheerful appearance, brightening up any landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sundrops>