

SUNUP

Meaning: Sunup refers to the time of day when the sun rises above the horizon, marking the beginning of daylight.

1. The fishermen set out to sea at sunup, eager to catch the morning tide.
2. As the sun peeked over the horizon at sunup, the world was bathed in a warm golden light.
3. We decided to hike to the summit and enjoy the breathtaking view at sunup.
4. Her routine included a refreshing jog every day at sunup, invigorating her for the day ahead.
5. The garden was most beautiful at sunup, with dew glistening on the petals of blooming flowers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sunup>