

SUPERINSPECT

Meaning: Superinspect (verb): To examine or scrutinize something with exceptional thoroughness and attention to detail, especially to ensure quality and prevent issues.

1. The team decided to superinspect every component before the final assembly to ensure quality.
2. To avoid any potential issues, the engineers were instructed to superinspect the new machinery thoroughly.
3. The software update was so critical that the developers were asked to superinspect the code for any hidden bugs.
4. During the audit, the supervisor emphasized the need to superinspect the financial records for accuracy.
5. As part of their quality assurance process, the lab technicians learned to superinspect all samples for contamination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/superinspect>