

SUPERINTEND

Meaning: To superintend means to oversee and manage the execution of a project or task.

1. The principal was hired to superintend the renovations of the old school building.
2. A skilled manager will superintend the project to ensure it meets all deadlines and specifications.
3. The committee was formed to superintend the development of the new community park.
4. She was appointed to superintend the training program for new employees.
5. Local authorities will superintend the construction to guarantee compliance with safety regulations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/superintend>