

SUPERSTITIOUS

Meaning: Superstitious: having irrational beliefs or practices regarding luck, omens, or the supernatural, often leading to avoidance of certain actions or objects thought to bring misfortune.

1. Many people are superstitious about walking under ladders, believing it brings bad luck.
2. Her superstitious nature led her to avoid breaking mirrors and stepping on cracks.
3. Despite his scientific background, he couldn't shake off the superstitious rituals his grandmother taught him.
4. The team's superstitious habits included wearing the same socks for every game to ensure victory.
5. She considered herself superstitious, always carrying a lucky charm during important events.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/superstitious>