

SUPERSULPHURIZE

Meaning: To supersulphurize means to treat a chemical compound with an excess of sulfur to increase its reactivity or performance.

1. The chemist decided to supersulphurize the compound to enhance its reactivity.
2. In order to improve the performance of the catalyst, they opted to supersulphurize it with a specialized technique.
3. Environmental regulations limited the extent to which industries could supersulphurize their emissions.
4. After careful experimentation, the researchers found that supersulphurizing the material significantly increased its durability.
5. The process to supersulphurize the coal was complicated but necessary for the desired energy output.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/supersulphurize>