

SUPPEDITATION

Meaning: Suppeditation refers to the provision or supply of resources or support, particularly in the context of organizational dynamics and economic efficiency.

1. The concept of suppeditation is crucial in understanding the dynamics of resource allocation within the organization.
2. In his lecture, the professor emphasized that suppeditation is often overlooked in discussions about economic efficiency.
3. The artist's style exemplifies the suppeditation of traditional techniques with modern influences.
4. During the debate, the senator argued that suppeditation of public funds for private interests undermines democracy.
5. The team's success relies on the suppeditation of effort and creativity toward a common goal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suppeditation>