

SUPLANTATION

Meaning: Supplantation refers to the act of replacing or displacing something, particularly in the context of methods, practices, or species.

1. The supplantation of traditional farming methods by industrial agriculture has transformed rural landscapes.
2. In botany, the supplantation of native species by invasive plants can disrupt entire ecosystems.
3. The political landscape experienced the supplantation of old ideologies by emerging progressive movements.
4. Technological supplantation has rendered many old jobs obsolete, creating both challenges and opportunities.
5. The supplantation of print media by digital platforms has reshaped the way we consume news.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/supplantation>