

SUPPLICATINGLY

Meaning: In a manner that expresses a humble and earnest plea or request.

1. She looked at him supplicatingly, hoping he would reconsider his harsh decision.
2. The child spoke supplicatingly, pleading for just five more minutes of playtime.
3. With a supplicatingly raised hand, she sought permission to speak in the crowded room.
4. He approached the judge supplicatingly, desperate for leniency in his sentencing.
5. The dog gazed at its owner supplicatingly, tail wagging in anticipation of a treat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/supplicatingly>