

SUPPLICATORY

Meaning: SUPPLICATORY: expressing a plea or request, often characterized by humility or earnestness.

1. Her supplicatory tone reflected her deep sense of humility and desperation.
2. The artist's painting was a supplicatory gesture, pleading for peace in a troubled world.
3. In the face of crisis, the community came together in a supplicatory prayer for guidance and strength.
4. He wrote a supplicatory letter to the council, asking for their help in resolving the issue.
5. The novel's protagonist often resorted to supplicatory pleas, revealing her vulnerability and need for support.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/supplicatory>