

SUPPOSITORY

Meaning: A suppository is a solid medication designed to be inserted into the rectum, vagina, or urethra, where it dissolves to deliver therapeutic effects.

1. The doctor recommended using a suppository to alleviate the patient's discomfort.
2. After discussing various treatment options, she decided to try a glycerin suppository for her constipation.
3. It's important to wash your hands before and after administering a suppository for hygiene reasons.
4. The suppository melted quickly, providing almost immediate relief from the annoying symptoms.
5. Some patients may find the idea of a suppository uncomfortable, but it can be very effective for certain conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suppository>