

SUPPRESSION

Meaning: Suppression refers to the act of inhibiting or restraining something, such as feelings, voices, or memories, often to maintain control or avoid discomfort.

1. The suppression of dissenting voices can lead to a dangerous imbalance in society.
2. In psychology, the suppression of traumatic memories is often a coping mechanism.
3. The government faced criticism for its suppression of the press during the crisis.
4. Her artistic expression was stifled by the suppression of her creative ideas.
5. The team worked to address the suppression of data that could impact their research results.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suppression>