

SUPPRESSIVE

Meaning: Suppressive: tending to restrain, inhibit, or subdue, particularly in relation to expression or dissent.

1. The government implemented suppressive measures to curb dissent among the population.
2. Her suppressive thoughts made it difficult for her to express her true feelings.
3. The suppressive effects of the medication left him feeling fatigued and withdrawn.
4. In a suppressive environment, creativity and innovation often struggle to thrive.
5. The organization's suppressive policies stifled free speech and open dialogue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suppressive>