

SUPPURANT

Meaning: Suppurant refers to a wound or condition that produces or is characterized by the discharge of pus.

1. The doctor examined the suppurant wound to determine the best course of treatment.
2. Despite her efforts to keep it clean, the infection turned suppurant, requiring medical attention.
3. The veterinarian warned that a suppurant condition could indicate a serious underlying illness in the animal.
4. After several days, the abscess became suppurant, necessitating drainage to alleviate the patient's discomfort.
5. The nurse noted that the suppurant discharge was a sign of worsening infection and alerted the physician.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suppurant>