

SUPPURATIVE

Meaning: SUPPURATIVE: relating to or characterized by the production of pus, typically indicating an infection.

1. The doctor diagnosed the patient with a suppurative infection that required immediate treatment.
2. After examining the pus-filled wound, the surgeon confirmed it was a suppurative condition.
3. In cases of suppurative tonsillitis, antibiotics are often necessary to reduce inflammation.
4. The presence of suppurative fluid in the abscess indicated a more severe underlying issue.
5. Chronic suppurative otitis media can lead to hearing loss if not addressed promptly.
6. The doctor diagnosed the patient with a suppurative infection that required immediate antibiotics.
7. In cases of suppurative inflammation, the affected tissue often produces pus and can lead to further complications.
8. The surgeon explained that the abscess was suppurative, indicating a need for drainage to relieve pressure.
9. Chronic suppurative otitis media can lead to hearing loss if not treated properly.
10. The laboratory tests confirmed the presence of a suppurative process in the patient's wounds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/suppurative>