

SUPRALAPSARIANISM

Meaning: Supralapsarianism is a theological doctrine that posits that God's decree of predestination occurred prior to the Fall of humanity, emphasizing His sovereignty in the order of divine purposes.

1. Supralapsarianism offers a complex view of predestination that emphasizes God's sovereignty before the Fall.
2. The debate between infralapsarianism and supralapsarianism has significant implications for theological discussions on divine justice.
3. Many theologians grapple with the nuances of supralapsarianism as they attempt to reconcile free will with predestined outcomes.
4. In the context of Reformed theology, supralapsarianism posits that God's election occurs prior to the decree of the Fall.
5. Supralapsarianism often raises questions about the nature of God's grace and the purpose of human suffering.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/supralapsarianism>