

SUPRAOCULAR

Meaning: Supraocular refers to a ridge or structure located above the eyes, often contributing to the appearance or adaptations of certain animals.

1. The supraocular ridge of the reptile was particularly pronounced, giving it a fierce appearance.
2. Researchers studied the supraocular structures of various bird species to understand their evolutionary adaptations.
3. The supraocular region of the frog's anatomy plays a crucial role in its visual processing capabilities.
4. During the dissection, we noted the unique coloration of the supraocular scales in the chameleon's skin.
5. Field studies revealed that the size of the supraocular area can vary significantly among different species of lizards.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/supraocular>