

SURCULATION

Meaning: Surculation is the process of circulating fluids, such as air or water, through a system to ensure even distribution and optimal conditions.

1. Surculation refers to the process of circulating fluids through a system.
2. The surculation of air inside the greenhouse helps maintain optimal growing conditions for the plants.
3. In engineering, understanding surculation can improve the efficiency of heat exchangers.
4. The researchers studied surculation patterns in the ocean to better predict climate changes.
5. Effective surculation of resources within the organization can lead to improved productivity and morale.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surculation>