

SURFEIT-WATER

Meaning: Surfeit-water refers to an excess of water, particularly from heavy rainfall or flooding, that overwhelms land or drainage systems.

1. The surfeit-water from the recent storms flooded the low-lying areas of the town.
2. Farmers struggled to manage the surfeit-water that saturated their fields after the heavy rains.
3. In the wake of the hurricane, the surfeit-water created a challenging environment for rescue operations.
4. The city's drainage system was overwhelmed by the surfeit-water, leading to widespread disruption.
5. Residents were warned to stay indoors due to the surfeit-water that had accumulated in the streets.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surfeit-water>