

SURGELESS

Meaning: SURGELESS: adjective describing a state of calmness or lack of sudden movement, typically referring to water or activity.

1. The surgeless night brought an unusual calm to the usually bustling city streets.
2. After the storm passed, the surgeless waves lapped gently against the shore, creating a serene atmosphere.
3. The engineers designed a surgeless system to ensure a steady flow of electricity during peak hours.
4. In the surgeless waters of the lake, the fishermen found it easy to catch their limit without disturbance.
5. Her voice was surgeless and soothing, making it easy for everyone to relax and listen.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surgeless>