

SURPHUL

Meaning: Surphul (adjective): characterized by an overwhelming abundance or fullness, often used to evoke richness in poetic contexts.

1. Surphul is a term often used in poetry to describe a feeling of overwhelming abundance.
2. The garden was surphul with flowers, each bloom adding to the vibrant tapestry of colors.
3. He experienced a surphul of emotions as he watched his child take their first steps.
4. The banquet table was surphul, laden with dishes from around the world that delighted every guest.
5. In her surphul imagination, the possibilities for adventure seemed endless and exhilarating.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surphul>