

SURPLUS

Meaning: Surplus: an amount of something that exceeds what is necessary or required, often leading to excess availability.

1. The company reported a surplus of goods that would allow for a discount sale.
2. After the harvest, the farmer celebrated the surplus of crops that exceeded his expectations.
3. Due to budget cuts, the school district was forced to reallocate its surplus funds for essential programs.
4. Environmentalists argue that a surplus of plastic waste in the ocean poses a significant threat to marine life.
5. The government announced plans to use the surplus from last year's budget to improve public infrastructure.
6. The company's annual report showed a significant surplus, allowing for potential investments in new projects.
7. After the harvest, the farmer had a surplus of tomatoes that he decided to sell at the local market.
8. Due to increased revenues, the city was able to create a surplus budget for community improvements.
9. Environmental regulations have led to a surplus of renewable energy in the region, benefiting local consumers.
10. The charity managed to distribute food to those in need, thanks to a surplus donation from a local grocery store.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surplus>