

SURPRISING

Meaning: Surprising (adjective): causing astonishment or unexpectedness due to being better or more favorable than anticipated.

1. The results of the experiment were surprisingly positive, far exceeding our expectations.
2. She had a surprisingly good sense of humor that caught everyone off guard.
3. It was surprising to see how quickly the weather changed from sunny to stormy.
4. His ability to solve complex problems under pressure was surprisingly impressive.
5. The documentary revealed surprising insights about ancient civilizations that challenged our assumptions.
6. The magician's final trick was so surprising that the entire audience gasped in unison.
7. It was surprising to learn that the quiet student had won first place in the debate competition.
8. The surprising turn of events left everyone in the room speechless and bewildered.
9. Her decision to move abroad was surprising to her friends, who thought she would stay nearby.
10. The weather this spring has been surprisingly warm, making it feel more like summer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surprising>