

SURRENDERER

Meaning: Surrenderer: a person who gives up or yields, especially in a context of conflict or combat.

1. The general declared that any surrenderer would be treated with respect and dignity.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the fierce warrior became a surrenderer to save his comrades.
3. The terms of the peace treaty outlined the rights of every surrenderer in the conflict.
4. As a surrenderer, she hoped to negotiate better conditions for her fellow prisoners.
5. The soldier's act of becoming a surrenderer was seen as a brave choice in a losing battle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surrenderer>