

SURVEILLANT

Meaning: Surveillant: an individual who observes or monitors others, often for purposes of security or oversight.

1. The surveillant officer monitored the streets closely for any suspicious activity.
2. She felt the weight of the surveillant gaze upon her as she walked past the café.
3. In a world where privacy is diminishing, the role of the surveillant has become more prominent.
4. The detective's surveillant efforts led to the capture of the elusive suspect.
5. He was often viewed as a surveillant figure in the community, always watching and noting details.
6. The surveillant officer monitored the crowd closely for any signs of trouble.
7. In the age of technology, being a surveillant has become both easier and more complex.
8. The film portrayed the life of a surveillant who struggled with the ethical implications of his job.
9. As a surveillant, she was trained to notice details that most people would overlook.
10. The presence of a surveillant added a layer of security to the event, putting attendees at ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surveillant>