

SURVEY

Meaning: A survey is a systematic method of collecting data from individuals to gather information or opinions on a specific topic.

1. The researchers conducted a survey to assess public opinion on climate change.
2. After completing the survey, participants received a small incentive for their time.
3. In the annual employee survey, job satisfaction ratings significantly improved this year.
4. The survey results revealed surprising trends in consumer behavior during the pandemic.
5. To gather accurate data, the team used an online survey tool to reach a wider audience.
6. The survey revealed surprising insights about consumer preferences.
7. Before launching the new product, the company conducted a thorough survey of potential customers.
8. She filled out the online survey in hopes of influencing future policy decisions.
9. The annual employee satisfaction survey showed significant improvements in workplace morale.
10. Researchers used a detailed survey to gather data on public health trends across the nation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/survey>