

SURVEYING

Meaning: Surveying is the process of measuring and mapping the physical features of a landscape to determine the best locations for construction or development.

1. Surveying the landscape, the team assessed the best locations for the new buildings.
2. The art of surveying has evolved significantly with the advent of modern technology.
3. He spent hours surveying the area to ensure accuracy in his measurements.
4. The government conducted a survey, surveying public opinion on the upcoming policy changes.
5. Surveying the crowd, she noticed several familiar faces among the attendees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/surveying>