

SUSCEPTIBLE

Meaning: Susceptible refers to being likely to be influenced or harmed by a particular condition or factor, especially due to vulnerability or lack of protection.

1. Children are often more susceptible to infections than adults due to their developing immune systems.
2. The new policy aims to protect susceptible populations from the impacts of climate change.
3. After the severe storm, many homes became susceptible to flooding, leading to extensive damage.
4. Her lack of experience made her susceptible to manipulation by more seasoned colleagues.
5. The research indicated that certain genetic factors can make individuals more susceptible to anxiety disorders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/susceptible>